

Sarasota/Manatee DIAL Program
Interns
Summer 2022

Yadira Gonzalez

The Manatee Performing Arts Center

Yadira Gonzalez (she/her) is a music student from the State College of Florida, planning to study Music Business at Florida Atlantic University. Her goal is to get a better understanding of the business aspects of the music industry in order to help others navigate it, and later be properly represented. She is thrilled to intern at The Manatee Performing Arts Center this summer!

Jordyn Caldwell

Sarasota Ballet

Jordyn Caldwell (she/her) is currently finishing her final year at George Mason University studying Film and Media. She is a Virginia resident who has previously resided in Avon Park, Florida and is happily having her homecoming working with the Sarasota Ballet. Jordyn has an extensive background in theater and has a particular interest in the diversity equity inclusion aspect of the field. Jordyn hopes to continue her work in the arts and has been spending her time improving her script writing and directing skills. She is more than excited to be a DIAL intern this summer!

Lauren David

Sarasota Art Museum

Lauren David (she/her) is a New College of Florida senior who is passionate about community and art. She minors in Museum Studies and majors in Environmental Studies with a focus on Urban Studies and the Environment. Her ambition is to combine her love of building inclusive public spaces (also known as "Placemaking") with museum curating.

Sierra Schumann

The John and Mable Ringling Museum of Art

Sierra Schumann (they/them) is a multimedia artist from Los Angeles County, California. A current student at the Ringling College of Art and Design, they major in Illustration, and have a wide range of experience from theatrical set painting to 3-D character design. With their open-minded, upbeat attitude, they wish to foster a dialogue of communication and encouragement for other neurodivergent creatives and team leaders.

Jonathan Lee

CreArte Latino

Jonathan Lee (any pronouns) is a Guatemalan-American performing artist originally from Chicago based in Sarasota. An incoming junior at New College of Florida, they study theatre & dance. Their mission is to diversify and showcase the diversity of local artistry and artistry at large
